

The Courier-Journal

October 14, 2004
Section: FEATURES
Edition: MET=METRO
Page: 07E
Column: TIPSHEET

KEN NEUHAUSER

'Rocky Horror Show'

To say Rachel Helson wants to make a difference in the fight against breast cancer would be an understatement. The 15-year-old sophomore at Louisville Collegiate School decided to do something when her fourth aunt was diagnosed with the disease several months ago.

She started a project, "Acting for a Cure." With help from family, friends and corporate sponsors Rachel is producing a theatrical production of Richard O'Brien's "The Rocky Horror Show."

Performances will be tomorrow and Saturday at the Kentucky Center. Net proceeds will be donated to the Louisville Affiliate of the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation.

Rachel also will be in the play, which will feature appearances by local celebrities, including Milton Metz and Chris Parente.

The production is being directed by Gil Reyes with musical direction by Gayle King.

By Michael Clevenger,
The Courier-Journal